

December 2025

International Day of Persons with Disabilities

100 %

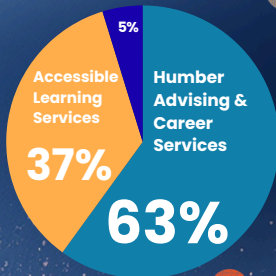

of attendees would recommend a Transition to Work webinar to others

Before the Event

Around 94 percent of people felt unprepared to advocate or creating an accessible workplace with only 6% saying the felt okay

How did you Hear about the event?

Key Take Aways

Participants left the event with gained confidence, practical tools, and strengthening their ability to collaborate on accessible and inclusive workplace practices.

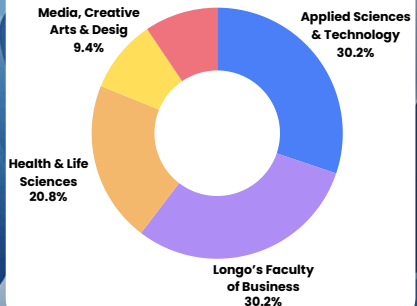

Disabilities on Display

After the Event

100 percent of attendees walked away with skills and tip to now advocate for themselves and create those spaces for them in the work place

Faculties and School in attendance

Testimonial

"The event helped me better understand how to approach accessibility in a meaningful and practical way."